

for like periods thereafter, without new applications, until such time as the status of the licensee shall have changed and he or she shall cease to sell food products raised by them as above setout, in which event said license or permit shall be revoked by the city clerk.

355. Section 8. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this ordinance, or who unlawfully engages in the business of a "transient dealer" in this city, or who transacts any business which under the provisions of this ordinance would make him a "transient dealer" without having a valid license therefore as hereinabove provided for and required, or who makes any false or untrue statement in an application for a license as a "transient dealer," or who shall commit any fraud in the transaction of his or her business as such dealer, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not less than Ten dollars nor more than One Hundred dollars, and the license of such person shall be null and void from the date of such conviction, and shall be cancelled on the records of the city clerk.

356. Section 9. Ordinance No. 61, passed February 6, 1920, and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

ORDINANCE NO. 129

(Passed October 4, 1929).

Relating to the Keeping and Harboring of Dogs, Bitches and Whelps.

357. Section 1. That no dog, bitch, or whelp, shall be kept or harbored within the limits of the City of Golden, unless the owner, keeper or person in charge of any such animal shall, before the first day of May in each and every year, pay to the City Clerk, for the use and benefit of the city, the sum of Two dollars for each and every male dog and four dollars for each and every female dog owned or kept by such person, and shall also place upon the neck of every such animal a collar made of durable material, having attached thereto a metal tag, to be furnished by the City Clerk, the number of such tag to correspond with the number of the license, to be issued to the owner, keeper or person in charge of such animal; if such collar or tag shall be lost or removed it shall be replaced immediately by the owner, keeper or person having charge of such animal; provided, that if any such animal, shall be brought or shall come into this city, and be there kept, after the first day of May, of any year, the owner, keeper or person in charge thereof shall immediately procure a license therefor as hereinabove provided.

358. Section 2. Every owner, keeper or person in charge of any such animal who shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with any of the terms or provisions of this ordinance or who shall violate any of such terms or provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

CHAPTER XVI.

Concerning Offenses in the Nature of Misdemeanors.

ORDINANCE NO. 55.

(Passed October 6, 1919).

359. Section 1. That no bawdy-house, house of ill fame, house of assignation, or place for the practice of fornication, or common ill-governed or disorderly house, dance hall, road house or cafe with dance hall in connection, or cabaret, shall be kept or maintained within the limits of the city of Golden; and every person who shall keep any such house, or shall be an inmate, or in any way connected with any such house, or contribute to its support, and every person who shall permit any tenement building or premises in his or her possession or name, or under his or her control, to be used for any such purpose, and every person who shall permit any building which shall be used or occupied for any such purpose to stand upon any lot or parcel of ground within said city owned, held, possessed or controlled, either as agent of the owner or otherwise by him or her, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction before a justice of the peace, forfeit and pay to the city of Golden a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars for each offense.

All ordinances conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

ORDINANCE NO. 12

(Town Ordinance 1877, Chapter XIII, Gen. Secs. 198, 199, Compiled Ordinances of 1900).

360. Section 1. If any person or persons shall dig or otherwise make any hole, drain or ditch in or across any street or alley in the city of Golden, without first having obtained a written permission from the City Council of said city, every such person, on conviction, shall be fined for each and every offense in a sum not less than ten nor more than three hundred dollars.

361. Section 2. No person or persons, or company of persons, incorporated or otherwise, shall hereafter make or construct any ditch, canal, race or flume, for irrigating, manufacturing or other purposes in, over or across any street or alley in the city of Golden, without first having obtained permission from the City Council of said city at some regular meeting thereof, under a penalty of three hundred dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered by fine, as provided for the recovery of other fines; and for each and every street and alley in, over or across which the said ditch, canal, race or flume shall be made or constructed, it is hereby made a distinct and separate offense, and each and every person engaged in the making or construction thereof, either as employe or otherwise, shall be deemed a separate offender, and liable to pay the full amount of the penalty in this section provided.

ORDINANCE NO. 13

(Town Ordinance 1877, Chapter XXXVI, Gen. Sec. 200, Compiled Ordinances of 1900).

362. Section 1. That if any person shall wrongfully, unlawfully and willfully cut down, break down, level, demolish or otherwise destroy or damage any bridge, sidewalk, embankment or ditch being the property of another and within the corporate limits of the city of Golden, or break or destroy the windows or doors of any dwelling house, or other house belonging to or occupied by another within the corporate limits of the city of Golden, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall pay all costs of prosecution.
