

286. Section 6. The garbage contractor having a contract with the City of Golden and a permit for the removal of garbage, and the drivers of garbage wagons and garbage collectors employed by him, and no one else, shall remove or cause to be removed any garbage from private houses, hotels, restaurants or other places, and said garbage shall be removed twice a week in the winter and three times a week in the summer from private residences and daily from hotels and restaurants and sanatoriums, and no person, firm or corporation shall remove or cause to be removed any garbage which accumulates at any place within the City of Golden without first obtaining a contract with the City of Golden and a permit from the City Clerk.

287. Section 7. Any person, firm or corporation violating or neglecting or refusing to comply with any regulation, requirement or provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than $10 nor more than $100.

CHAPTER XV.

Concerning Licenses.

ORDINANCE NO. 22.

(Passed September 18, 1879.)

ARTICLE I.

288. Section 1. In all cases, not otherwise provided for, city licenses shall be signed by the mayor, countersigned by the clerk, and shall have the seal of the city thereto affixed, shall be dated as of the day of their issue, and shall state the purpose and length of time for which the same shall be issued, with the words "unless sooner revoked" added after such designation of time; and a license to a liquor dealer shall also designate the place where such business is to be carried on. No license shall be granted to extend over a period of one year, and no license to a liquor dealer shall extend beyond a municipal year. Every license shall be subject to the ordinances and regulations of the city existing at the date of the issuance thereof, and likewise to those which may be passed and put in force during the continuance of such license, and a violation by the license of any of the provisions of such ordinances or regulations during the existence of his license shall subject the same to revocation by the City Council or by the mayor, who is hereby empowered in his discretion to revoke the same for such cause.

Section 2 is repealed. See Ordinance No. 66.

289. Section 3. Upon the order of the City Council, or of the mayor directing the issuance of a license for any purpose, the clerk shall make out and present the same forthwith to the mayor for his signature, and after such signing and upon the payment to the clerk for the use of the city of the necessary sum required for such license, the same shall be issued to the applicant as required by ordinance. The signature of the mayor to the license shall be a sufficient order in cases where the application is made to the mayor.

290. Section 4. In case of the absence of the mayor from the city, or of his sickness, or of a vacancy in such office, then the temporary president of the City council shall perform all the duties of the mayor in the granting of licenses, and his signature to licenses in such cases shall be sufficient; but in all such cases the cause of such issue shall be stated in the license.

291. Section 5. No license shall be assignable or transferable, and every license issued without payment in advance by the applicant to the city clerk of the full sum required by ordinance for such license shall be void.

292. Section 6. If the city clerk shall issue any license without the payment of the full sum required for such license he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

293. Section 7. Every such license shall be paid for in money.

294. Section 8. The clerk shall keep a license register in which shall be entered the name of each and every person licensed, the date of the license, the purpose for which the license shall have been granted, the amount paid therefor, and the time when the same will expire.

295. Section 9. If any person or persons shall carry on or transact any business or occupation, or do or perform any act or thing without license, for which a license is required by any ordinance of this city, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

296. Section 10. It shall be the duty of the city marshal to see that the provisions of this ordinance are observed and enforced, and that all persons liable to pay a city license shall procure the same.

ARTICLE III.

Auctioneers.

297. Section 1. No person shall sell any property at public auction in this city without a license therefor first had and obtained; Provided, that sales made by virtue of legal process shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

298. Section 2. The license required by section one (1) of this article shall be issued for not less than one day and not exceeding one year, at the option of the licensee, and there shall be paid in advance for such license the sum of ten ($10.00) dollars per day for each and every day of the existence of the same. (As amended Nov. 4, 1887.)

ARTICLE V

Pawnbrokers.

299. Section 1. No person shall carry on the business of pawnbroker in this city without a license therefor, which may be obtained by the payment to the city clerk for the use of the city of the sum of forty dollars for one year, or twenty-five dollars for six months. And no such license shall be issued for a less period than six months.

300. Section 2. No pawnbroker shall at any time receive by way of pledge or pawn any goods, articles or thing whatever from a minor, and a violation hereof shall subject him to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars.

LICENSES
ARTICLE VII.

Shows and Exhibitions.

301. Section 1. No person or persons shall, within this city, exhibit any circus, caravan, theatre, menagerie, or any natural or artificial curiosities, or any exhibit, show or amusement of any kind whatsoever, for gain or profit, without first obtaining a license therefor; Provided, that for school exhibitions, musical parties or concerts and exhibitions of paintings and statuary, and all other exhibitions for religious or charitable purposes, given or made by the citizens of this city, no license shall be required.

302. Section 2. For a license for the exhibition of a circus, caravan or menagerie, or any or all combined, there shall be paid for the first day twenty-five dollars, and for each additional day fifteen dollars, and such license shall not be granted for a period exceeding three days.

303. Section 3. For a license for a theatrical exhibition, concert, musical entertainment, exhibition of rope or wire dancing, puppets, wax figures, painting, statuary, panoramas, natural or artificial curiosities, tricks or legerdemain, pugilism, or any other show or amusement not herein specified, there shall be paid one hundred dollars for three months, fifty dollars for one month, twenty-five dollars for one week, and not less than five nor more than ten dollars for one day; and the license shall be made to expire accordingly.

Articles II, IV, VI, VIII and IX of this ordinance have been repealed.

ORDINANCE NO. 47

(Passed November 6, 1907).

Shooting Gallery—Billiard Tables, Etc.

304. Section 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to carry on the business of keeper for gain or hire, within this city, of any shooting gallery, billiard table, pool table, bagatelle table, pigeon-hole table, shuffle board, pin alley, ball alley or any table or track on which games are played with balls, without first procuring a license therefor. For a license for one such gallery, table, board, alley or track, for six months, the sum of six dollars shall be paid; for one year, ten dollars; and for each additional table, board, alley or track, one-half the foregoing rates.

305. Section 2. It shall not be lawful, within this city, to keep open any public billiard hall, pool room, bowling alley, shooting gallery, card room or any place where any games of skill or chance are played, after midnight and before five o'clock in the morning of any day. All such places shall be closed and kept closed from twelve o'clock at midnight until five o'clock in the morning of every day in the week. That during the time or times herein specified in which the said places are to be kept closed no person or persons except the proprietor or his regular employes shall be permitted to be in or about the premises. Any and every person who shall violate or fail, neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.
