

license shall be issued for a less period than one year. All moneys paid for licenses shall be and remain the moneys of the City of Golden, and there shall be no abatement thereof to any licensee by reason of revocation of his license. All licenses issued hereunder shall be made to expire on December 31.

321. Section 7. Every public cafe, public restaurant, or public short order eating place or stand, whereat any dancing, music, singing or entertainment of any kind, other than the serving of bona fide meals is indulged in, shall be closed and kept closed from eleven o'clock p. m. until five o'clock in the morning each and every day of the week.

322. Section 8. Any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance or any violation of the police regulations concerning the conduct of the business for which the license hereunder is granted, by the licensee, or his agent, clerk or employe, shall subject his license to revocation by a majority vote of the City Council, at any regular or special meeting of said Council.

323. Section 9. Any person who, either as principal, agent, clerk, employe or servant, violates any of the provisions of this ordinance, or who fails to observe and keep all police regulations concerning the business mentioned in this ordinance and for which license shall be hereunder granted shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding 90 days, in the discretion of the court. Every violation, and every continuing violation of the things herein commanded or prohibited for the space of each 24 hours shall be held to constitute separate and distinct offenses, and shall be dealt with and punished accordingly.

324. Section 10. That this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and in the opinion of the City Council an emergency exists; therefore this ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately after its final passage and publication.

ORDINANCE NO. 69

(Passed May 12, 1920).

Automobiles and Other Vehicles—Passenger Traffic

325. Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, either as principal or through an officer, agent or employe, to keep or use any public stand on any street, within the City of Golden, with any automobile or other vehicle for the purpose of soliciting passengers, or to keep any such automobile or other vehicle standing on any street of the city to be used for the carrying of passengers, or for the purpose of maintaining, running or establishing lines of passenger traffic with such automobile or other vehicles over the streets of the City of Golden, without a license first had and obtained from the City of Golden so to do, as herein-after provided.

326. Section 2. The city clerk, at once, after the passage of this ordinance, shall be authorized to designate, number and establish, at the curb or street line on Thirteenth street between Washington avenue and Arapahoe street, what shall be termed and known as Vehicle Stands under the provisions of this ordinance. Said stands shall not be more than ten feet in width, with intervening spaces of not less than four feet each, such intervening spaces to be kept clear for use of pedestrians. Provided, the said clerk may establish such vehicle stands on other streets when in his judgment the same would be practicable and advisable. No such stands shall be permitted where the same would interfere with persons going to and from street cars at regular stopping places for receiving and discharging passengers by such street cars.

327. Section 3. The city clerk is hereby authorized to issue the licenses required by this ordinance, to any reputable person, firm or corporation, granting the privilege to keep, and operate, drive and use for hire and the conveyance of passengers, as specified in section one hereof, automobiles or other vehicles as provided in this ordinance, and not otherwise, upon the payment of license fees as hereinafter provided.

328. Section 4. Licenses granted under this ordinance may, during the life of such license, be transferred by the licensee upon the written consent of the city clerk.

329. Section 5. Before any such license shall be issued to any person, firm or corporation, for the purposes aforesaid, such person, firm or corporation owning or operating such vehicle, shall execute and deliver a bond, with at least one good and sufficient surety, running to the City of Golden, in the sum of $200.00, to be approved by the mayor, indemnifying said city against all liability in the premises and conditioned upon the faithful observance of the provisions of this ordinance.

330. Section 6. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to keep a register of all licenses issued under this ordinance and the names of all persons, firms or corporations to whom issued. Such register shall state the date of issue of the license; the date of transfer and name of transferee, if transferred; the number of the license; a description of the automobile or other vehicle licensed; and the number of the stand assigned to the licensee, with name of street where located.

331. Section 7. Every license granted shall be numbered and dated as of the issue thereon, it shall contain a brief description of vehicle licensed and the number of vehicle stand to which such license relates. Such license shall be kept and exhibited in a conspicuous place within the vehicle licensed at all times during the existence of such license and during the use of such vehicle for the purposes herein mentioned. It shall be the duty of the licensee to see to it that the license number is used and exhibited on the licensed vehicle, in plain and distinct form, at all times when such vehicle is used in said business. Upon the expiration of the license, or upon its revocation, the licensee shall immediately cause said number to be erased from such vehicle and shall not allow said vehicle to be used with said number remaining thereon.

332. Section 8. Such license shall entitle the licensee and holder thereof, during the life of said license, to the exclusive use of the stand therein described, or numbered, and it shall be unlawful for any other person, firm, or corporation, to use or occupy any such stand during said time.

333. Section 9. Every driver of an automobile or other vehicle under the provisions of this ordinance, shall wear a badge which shall be furnished him by the city clerk upon the payment of the cost price thereof. Such badge shall be made of metal and shall have on the face thereof the words "Golden Vehicle License" and the number thereof, and the same shall be worn on the clothing of the driver of such vehicle in some conspicuous place where easily discernible; the number of such badge shall correspond with the number of the license of the vehicle which he drives.

334. Section 10. No person shall make any such badge or duplicate thereof except by order of the city clerk, and no driver shall wear any such badge other than that furnished him by the city clerk. No person shall have or keep in his possession any such badge or duplicate badge without an unexpired license bearing the corresponding number.

335. Section 11. Whenever a badge shall be lost or stolen, the owner must immediately report the fact to the city clerk, who may issue a duplicate thereof upon payment of a fee above specified. Any person finding a badge must immediately deliver the same to the city clerk.

336. Section 12. Solicitors shall, when on duty as such, according to the provisions of this ordinance, wear upon their hat or cap a badge, showing in plain and distinct view, the word "SOLICITOR" and may also contain the number or numbers of vehicle stand or stands, represented by such solicitor.

337. Section 13. Applicants for licenses under the provisions of this ordinance shall pay therefor, to the city clerk, as follows:

For first car, 12 passenger size or less, the sum of twenty dollars per annum.

For each additional car, 12 passenger size or less, in excess of one car, to same person, firm or corporation, the sum of ten dollars per annum.

For each car, over 12 passenger and not exceeding 20 passenger size, the sum of 50 dollars per annum.

For each car exceeding 20 passenger size, the sum of $100 per annum.

338. Section 14. The regular dates for the beginning and expiration of licenses issued under this ordinance shall be January first and December thirty-first, respectively, each year. All licenses issued hereunder shall be made to expire on December 31, but licenses may be granted and issued at any time during the year for the unexpired portion of the year, but full annual rate as above specified shall be paid therefor.

339. Section 15. Before granting license, as provided herein, for a vehicle stand in front of business or occupied residence property, the same shall be consented to by the owner or person in charge of such property.

340. Section 16. The city clerk shall prepare and preserve in his office, correct charts of all vehicle stands established by him under the provisions of this ordinance.

341. Section 17. Licensees under this ordinance shall be privileged to employ and have the services of solicitors, limited as follows:

For one car: One driver and one solicitor.

For two cars: Two drivers and one solicitor.

For three or more cars: Three or more drivers and two solicitors.

Any scenic incline railway in operation out of Golden shall have the right to two solicitors subject to the same restrictions hereby imposed.

342. Section 18. Soliciting for passengers may be permitted with consent of owners of residence property only on the north side of Thirteenth Street between Washington Avenue and Cheyenne Street, provided, however, that soliciting may be permitted on the south side of Thirteenth Street between Washington Avenue and Cheyenne Street with the written consent of the property owners and provided further that drivers shall not go beyond the limits of their respective stands nor upon the sidewalks to solicit.

343. Section 19. Said solicitors shall, at all times and places while on duty as such, conduct themselves in an orderly, peaceable and respectful manner towards all persons. If any such solicitor shall fail, while on duty, to so properly conduct himself, it shall be the duty of the licensee by whom he was employed to at once discharge him from any further service as such solicitor. Failure on the part of the licensee to at once make such discharge shall subject his license to revocation. All licensees shall likewise demean themselves in an orderly and peaceable manner.

344. Section 20. If any person, firm or corporation obtaining a license as provided herein for the purposes herein mentioned, shall, as principal or through any officer, agent, clerk, or employe representing said principal or owner, fail to comply with the provisions of this ordinance, their license shall be subject to revocation by the clerk, with the consent of the mayor; and in case of revocation, all unearned money paid for any such license shall be forfeited to the City of Golden. Every licensee and solicitor shall observe and obey all police and traffic regulations of the city.

345. Section 21. A violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance, by licensee, solicitor, or any other person, shall subject offender, or offenders, upon conviction, to a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

ORDINANCE NO. 159

(Passed November 5, 1937.)

Solicitors and the Distributers of Advertising Matter.

346. Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, either as principal or agent, to engage in the business, within the City of Golden, of going from place to place, or from house to house, soliciting and taking orders for the sale and future delivery of manufactured goods, wares and merchandise, and it shall also be unlawful for any person to distribute any handbills, dodgers or other printed or written advertising matter, within said city, without first procuring a license so to do from the city clerk, and paying therefor the sum of five dollars for each and every day, or fraction of a day, for which said license shall be issued, provided, however, that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to persons who solicit or take orders exclusively from merchants, business houses and places, manufacturing concerns, retail or wholesale establishments or concerns, or from public or semi-public agencies and institutions.

347. Section 2. Any person who violates the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

ORDINANCE NO. 160

(Passed November 5, 1937.)

"Transient Dealers."

348. Section 1. The term "Transient Dealer," for the purpose of this ordinance, shall mean and include any person, either principal or agent, who engages in the business of traveling about from place to place or from house to house, over, along or upon the streets, alleys or other public ways and places of the City of Golden, carrying or conveying with him or her for sale and selling goods, wares, merchandise, fruits, vegetable or other product within the limits of this city, and shall include peddlers and hawkers and those who make use of any kind or form of conveyance or vehicle for the carrying and transportation of the commodity or commodities sold or offered for sale by him or her.
